

The Gromble's Guide to the Gruesome

(Part 1 of 1)

Okay, my mangy little monsters, your assignment is to HIDE and SCARE. An element of surprise is essential if you want to be really FRIGHTENING. You must sneak up on your victims when they least expect it. Ickis, Oblina, and Krumm will demonstrate:

First, choose your point of entry wisely. You don't want to draw attention to yourself.

Wait until your victim is distracted.

Andy will be here any minute, and I'm not even close to ready!

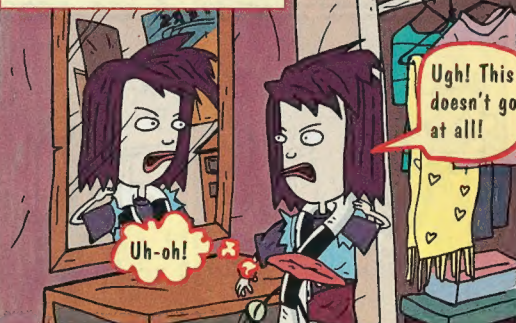

Find a nice place to hide.

Home is where the stink is!

If you run into trouble, stay calm...

Uh-oh!

Ugh! This doesn't go at all!

...try not to panic...

...wait for the perfect moment...

MMMMPPFFH!

...THEN ATTACK!

AAAHH!

Excellent work, my darling disgustoids! You make my bloating belly swell with pride. A-plus!
